

AIBS Membership

AIBS membership, both individual and institutional, is on a fiscal-year basis, October 1 through September 30. Institutional membership must be approved by the Institute's Board of Trustees. Those interested in becoming Institutional Members should contact the president, Dr. Golam Mathbor (gmathbor@monmouth.edu).

Individual membership is open to all persons who are engaged professionally in Bangladesh studies. It costs $25 annually. Members participate in the Institute's programs, including panels at the annual meetings of the South Asia Conference at the University of Wisconsin, Madison, in October, and at the Association for Asian Studies Meetings in the Spring.

To join as an individual member, fill out the form below and send it with your $25 payment (payable to American Institute of Bangladesh Studies) to the address below.
